

Long Gradation Calculation

Lucas Agagnier

3/22/2021

Explanation

My assessment of Long-gradation calculations are a way of extrapolating moisture content of aggregates using a small subset of the finer particles. Some online sources simply refer to it as the assessment of the distribution of mass along the size gradient.

Formulas

First and most important is Moisture content which is a percentage by mass.

$MC($